Author/Employee Module - 11/25/2009

This file contains a series of mock screen layouts for the Author/Employee module for the PubsMG web application. Each mockup is linked to others via clickable text and form elements. These mockups are only meant to show the layout and functionality of the module. Other than the position and size of the elements, they are not meant to be visually critiqued.

As you click on various elements in the mockups, please keep in mind that not all links are clickable and that some links go to mockups that are representative of the type of information to be displayed.
